Just as this posted sign guides the traveller, so SIGNPOST, the magazine, is also a means for sharing information about the outdoor life.

SIGNPOST is a journal of communication and information for all non-motorized trail users in the Pacific Northwest states and neighboring regions.

Readers are invited to submit material for publication as a contribution to the cause of safer and more enjoyable trail travel.

Gifts to expand the distribution of the magazine will be accepted and tax-deductible receipts will be sent if requested.
